ENORMOUS CRATER ON THE LINE

KILLED EIGHT

Kimberley, July 17.

Three hundred and twelve tons of dynamite, sufficient to destroy a small city, being transported by railway train, exploded on the line between Kimberley and the Rand gold mines to-day.

The hoge consignment went up | with a shattering roar which was heard for miles and shook build ings over an enormous area.

Eight persons were killed

A house nearby the scene of the disastrous explosion was wrecked and a married woman and her three children all succumbed to their injuries.

The train guard and two natives: were killed outright by the blast.

GONE IN A FLASH.

Thirty-four tracks in which the dynamité was being carried were; blown to smithereens. One moment the train was puffing steadily. along the line. The next, it had disappeared, literally in a flash,

An enormous trench, fifteen feet deep and over three hundred yards long was blown in the permanent way, which presents n remarkable spectacle.

It was fortunate that the explosion occurred in the comparatively desolate part of the railway. Had such an enormous quantity of dynamite gone up while the train was passing through the suburbs of Kimberley, the mishap would probably have assumed the proportions of a great catastrophe, ...

(Special to "Telegraph")

Shanghai, July 18.

American, British and Italian officials attended yesterday's ceremony which marked the further withdrawal of Japanese marines and the handing over of control to the Chinese police.

At present only two areas are still controlled by the Japanese forces; otherwise, all areas in Shanghai and Greater Shanghai are controlled by the proper authorities exactly as prior to the opening of Sino-Japanese thostilities on January 28.

The two exceptions are the Japanese Toyoda Cotton Mill and the Chinese Kung Dah Cotton Mill .--Reuter.

The illustration depicted above is an accurately drawn whart showing at a glance the unique; and yet steady and sound growth of our rent collecting department during the last five years. The actual figures showing the volume of business done and rentals collected on foreign houses during that period are 1927---508, 1928---675, 1929 -2548, 1930---3203, 1931 4443

This most satisfactory increase in the valume of business handled is the natural result of the policy we have adopted inevery phase of our activities. That this policy has met with the approval of our clients is reflected not only in the increase on the volume of business, handled by our foreign houses. rent collections, but to an even greater extent in the depart ment's handling the affairs of Chinese housestrent collections.

The collection of rentals often carries with it the managment of states, and this intimate relationship with landlords makes The China Realty Company the logical place for property owners to come when they need help in the financing of improvements to their properties, and sound advice in the management, sale,, or buying of properties and estates resulting from. increase Management Sound

Amother phase of our activities has to do with the investing public, that is, the holders of our 8% debentures on which the interest is payable semi annually. We believe that those who furnish the capital on which the company is enabled to do increased business should participate in the profits --that the most successful concerns of the future will be those who recognize this principle--that even banks will allocate to depositors a part of profits earned on their money over and above current rates of interest. As our balance sheets show quite plainly, the proceeds from the sale of our debentures is not used for the purchase of real estate. AS WE ARE NOT SPECULATORS, but for investment in first class mortgages, amply secured not only by the value of the land pledged as security but as a further security the fact that the debentures constitute a first claim on the total assets of the company... An analysis of the figures involved shows that every debenture has behind it assets equal to three times its value.

Were it not for the position of confidence gained through the consistent policy to which we have adhered, and the volume of unsolicited business which has come as a result, we could not thus complete our service by offering the man who wishes to invest in debentures an opportunity to share with us in the prosperity of our_business by paying debenture interest of 8 and remember, 8% VERSUS 6% MEANS ONE THIRD MORE INCOME!

Confronted with a world capable of entertaining what we consider such illogical misconceptions and of tolerating for so long such colossal structural defects—a world run by men who are so patently out of their depth and blind to the faults of the machine they control-we see little chance of their being able to effect running repairs. Even if they knew how to do that, they would have to stop the machine to free its seized bearings. But, of course, they have allowed things to go too far.

The only reply to our question as to what they propose to do is a vague theory that; although they do not know what is really, wrong with it, the machine will right itself without any effort on their part except for such gentle words of encouragement as they may offer at the Lausanne and other conferences.

A machine that will eliminate its own structural defects and correct the fallacies of its designors, without those in charge of it being cognisant of either, or being prepared to take it to pieces and make drastic alterations, is a phenomenon outside our experience, beyond our understanding. We may be forgiven, therefore, for replying to these optimistic travellers' tales of our elders that "there ain't no sich animal."

Meanwhile, till they produce the phenomenon to rebut our incredulity, there is nothing for us to do except to remain cheerful.

Westminister, June 25. To-day's question for the House of Commons was this: ing in his pocket?

desire is "Agreements for trium- done:-400,000 shares. phant display at Ottawa." But, are they really tucked away in one of the Dominions Secretary's Air Reduction $36 dress suits, or was he only anticipating in this afternoon's speech?

Estimating the chances at next month's crucial Imperial Conference, Mr. Thomas drew on his industrial experience to remark: "The best agreements are made Morden Company ... when you have got them in your pocket before you announce them.' At the same time he looked particularly knowing.

The aphorism, and the look which set it off, were not for Eastman Kodak Rull G. o gottes by Sir Stafford Cripps General Electric ... when his turn came for the So- General Foods 22* cialists. "I gather, the Minister General Motors has some agreements now," he International Har-6-4 suggested deferentially; and the Dominions Secretary nodded.

The lawyer acclaimed it as a sign- "He nods," affirmed "Sir 2- 6 Stafford Cripps, calling the House Lacw's Inc.

But Mr. Thomas has the old Radio Corporation political hand's dislike of being convicted of anything, and artfully freed himself with the retorts "I did not sod my head in acquiescence. I was dozing." If one may venture to fathom so subtle a man, the od probably United Aircraft & did Imply that Mr. Thomas's pocket is not completely empty. Ministers don't normally go nodding about the Chamber uples: there is something to rock their eraniums. At all events, if Mr. Thomas has merely been dozing. and had a dream, the Commons I vill be justifiably annoyed.

Should anyone object that a great deal too much has been said about a solitary Olympian nod, he muxi blame Mr. Thomas for providing little else to write about,

A Permanent Edifice. Instead of dealing with the Conference agenda, the Minister dealt in generalities, and in place of disclosing policy, exuded -guarded hopes. Everybody was laware that wife Government are creation Club defeated the Kowloon going to Ottawa with an open mind and a free hand and all other physical and mental attributes a talented Government should have, but Mr. Thomas said this all over again.

I should look on the task as almost hopeless," ob-I served the delegate to Ottawa: but he laid the Dominious' relationships as unction to his soul, and also put his trust in the Government's preparations at home and overseas, which, from his de-I scription, have been thorough. The Conference, he promised, will not be allowed to drag on Geneva-fashion, but must be busil,ess-like and decisive.

Tariffs and trade (including an ambitious project for ralionalising industry within the Empire). and finance (including currency problems), were the main heads of the programme specified; and at the end of the assembly Mr. Thomas hopes to see a body arise which will keep the members of the Commonwealth in permanent contact.

Sir Stafford Cripps was pessimistic. Empire preferences he conceived to be charged with peril; the auction mart was not the place to cement friendships-"never buy a horse from a friend," said he. The ex-Minister was nervous, too, of canalising trade, which ought, he assumed. to be free as air. It is about as substantial nowadays. SHANGHAI TENNIS

NEW CHINESE. DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

HOLDERS DETHRONED

Shanghai, July 12. The final of the Chinese open tennis doubles whampionship took place yesterday afternoon at the China National Amateur Athletic Federation, C. D. Kuo and Y. Y. Kno, winners of the 1931 title, were dethroned by two youthful college splayers, D. K. Yui and Guy Chen, who won in straight sets at 7-5, 6-0 and 6-3. Yui was the 1930 Shanghai junior champion and is at present a student at the University of Shanghai, while Chen reached the final of last year's hard-court tournament at the French Club and was beaten by W. A. H. Duff. He is now studying at St. John's University. Both are pupils of Gordon Lum, who officiated at yesterday's final.

EX-CHAMPIONS START WELL.

The ex-champions started off in fine form and took the first two games before Yui and Chen could get set. The latter pair won the third game, but still lagged behind until the ninth, when they reeled off four games in succesgion to win the opening set at 7.5. In the second set, play was very one-sided, as Yui and Chen ran away with without conceding a sigle game. In the third set the Joseph improved, but they lacked the ability to win, giving the set to their conquerors at 6-3.

The winning couple played a sound game with strong services. and unbreakable net play. They hung to the net like leaches and broke their opponents' teamwork to pieces. The two Kuos were all at sea, not knowing what to do. Their shots mostly went straight to the winners' rackets, and only with accurate passing shots.

AMERICA CLAIMS NEW TITLE

lady golf champion, is retiring autumn in a final attempt to win retire owing to engine trouble cident. the American Women's Open.

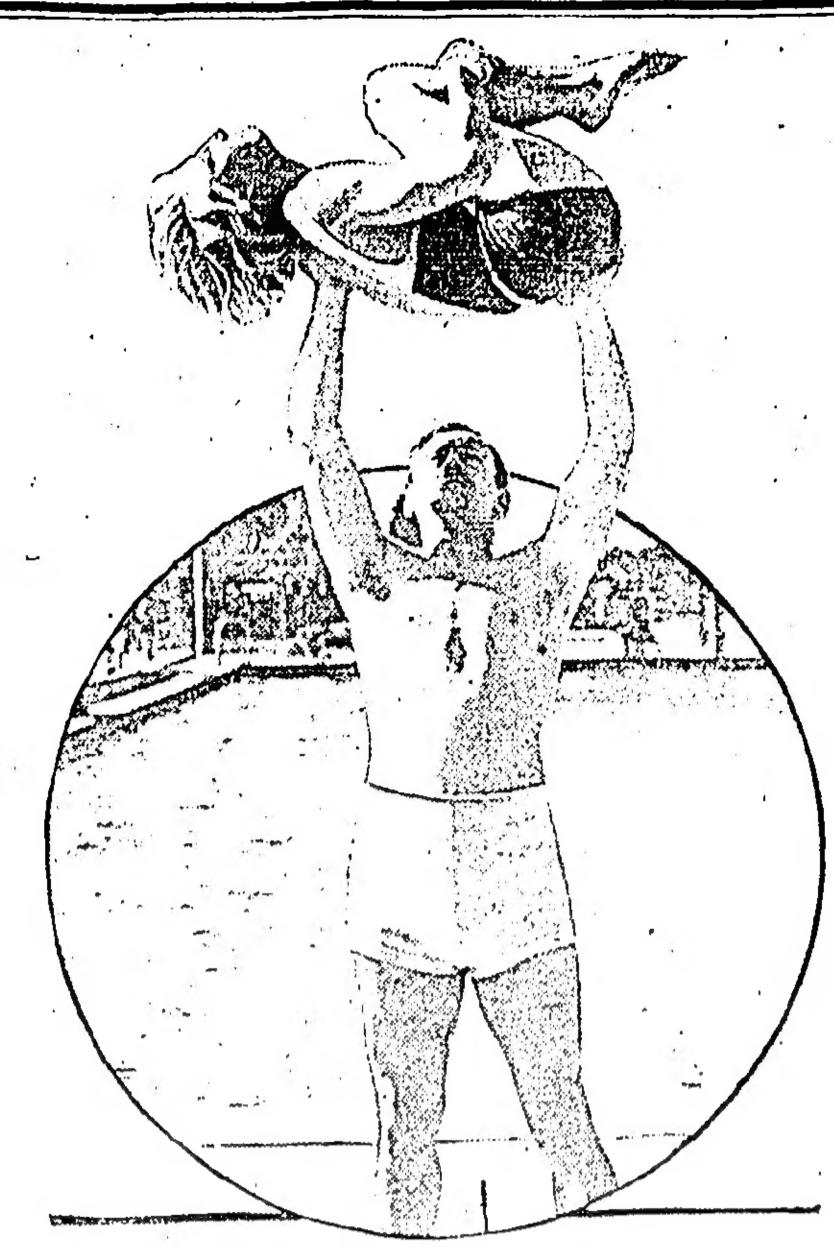

Miss Wilson is Great Britain's foremost player. She is only 22 years of age. It is a remarkable age to contemplate a retirement from the game in which she is so distinctive a star. Just now there seems to be rather a dearth of brilliant young women golfers and it seems a thousand pities that the benefit of Miss Wilson's years of studious application to the game should be lost.

Without question she has raised the standard of women's golf.

GERMANY'S OLYMPIC STARS DEPART

Crack Performers Should Give a Good Account in America

Bremen, July 11. The German, Latvian and Czechoslovakian Olympic teams have sailed aboard the liner "Europa" for America. The German squad is composed of 79 athletes while five others, in-cluding the German Marathon runner de Bruyn, will join the party in America. The team is-headed by the famous track performers Jonath, Koerning and Dr. Peltzer, the two scullers Bulitz and Boetzelen who recently won the Dinmond Sculls in the Henley regatta. as well as by Sergeant Hirschfeld who holds the world-record in putting the weight.

YT appears that Miss Dorothy Poynton of the Los Angeles A.C., is about to be strong armed into an Olympic diving title if this dryland practice with Marion P. Betty, former amateur weightlifting and light heavy wrestling champion, amounts to anything. Dorothy holds the national low board championship and is a leading contender for the high board and high platform titles in the Olympic events.

Is the Head of the Sanitary Department aware that, as flies breed in large numbers, and that such flies and the odour emitted from the drying beds are most objectionable to dwellers in the vicinity?

In view of the fact that to stop. flies are well-known poswhich at present has comparatively large number of cholera in-patients, will the Head of the Sanitary Department consider what practical steps the Sanitary Department could take to ameliorate the existing conditions, bearing in mind the importance of the removal or mitigation of the flies nuisance within the immediate vicinity to the Hospitals mentioned?

LESSON-SERMON.

FIRST CHERCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, HONGKONG

"Life" was the subject of the zesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist; yesterday.

The Golden Text was .- "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life of whom shall I be afraid?" (Psalm 27; 1.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible .- "These words spake Jesus, and lifted uphis eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify was deserted. Perhaps the play thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee. As thou hast given that was it! He knew now why he many as thou hast given him. SOCIAL GATHERING.

CATHOLIC YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY AT HOME

The first "At Home" held by the Chinese Catholic Young Men's Society on Saturday night proved to be a tremendous success. The function was originally intended to have been held in the Cathedral compound, but owing to the inclement weather it was held in the Club adjoining the Cathedral.

Among the visitors present were His Grace the Bishop, the Right Rev. Mgr. Henry Valtorta, Rev. Fr. Suarez, Procurator of the Spanish Mission, and other priests: The President of the Society, Princess. Mr. J. S. LAURA GUERITE.

SCORES A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Miss Laura Guerite, the wellknown entertainer, scored brilliant success in her appearance at the Rose Room of the Peninsula Hotel on Saturday evening, a large company of revelers cheering her exceptionally clever turns.

Miss Guerite, who has played in Fiorenz Zeigfeld's Follies, produced revues and composed songs and lyrics, is still a great artiste, and ner extremely clever monologues and witty patter were delivered in her best style.

Opening with an amusing monologue on the modern girl, Miss Guerite next endeavoured to satisfy her enthusiastic audience with an interpretation of her famous "Queens of England", later gave the Italian slave girl, and, finally, in reply to numerous requests and insistent demands from the Rose Room audience, her brilliantly witty monologue,

The occasion was one of the most successful and enjoyable arranged by the enterprising hotel management, and it came as welcome news to those present to learn that it would be repeated on Saturday next when Miss Guerito will introduce some more of her favourite numbers.

VETERAN OF S. AFRICAN AND EUROPEAN WARS

London, July 16. The death is reported of Field Marshal Lord Plumer, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., G.B.E., K.V.B., C.B., G.C.V.O.—Reuter.

British general, was born at Torquay in March 1857, and educated the vehicle. at Eton. In 1876 he joined the York and Lancaster Regiment. He served on the Red Sen const in 1884 and commanded a mounted regiment in the Matabele war. Before the South African campaign he was sent out to the Cape on special service and raised the Rhodesian Field Force which he commanded in early stages of the conflict. General Plumer took part in the relief of Mafeking. During the advance a shell burst close to him while he was conforring with his staff. He merely said to an aide: "Kindly tell the artillery officer to be good enough to silence that gun" and resumed his conversation. He acted as leader of the wind screen. various columns and at the end of the campaign was promoted majorgeneral and appointed an A. D. C. to the King. PROBLEM FOR TRADE. UNION

Rome, June 23. The Trade Union at Frosinone has been confronted with an unusual and delicate problem: "Is an employer justified in dismissing an apprenticed workman because his women workers fell in love with him?"

The employer in the case owns n shoe factory, and for some months past he noticed growing discord and signs of jealousy among his women employees with consequent falling off in quality and quantity of work. Discreet inquiries revealed that the cause of all the unrest was that the whole female staff had fallen in love with Giuseppe, a handsome young apprentice.

Thinking that to put Giuseppe out of sight would be to put him out of mind, the employer sent him home, but the apprentice appealed to the Union for damages against his employer or reinstatement at work. In answer to the plea that it was not his fault if all the women chose to fall in love with him, the employer responded with evidence that the apprentice was by no means passive in the matter. and that it was his habit to write impassioned billets doux to the women and use the toes of shoes as a convenient way of passing his message and spreading jealousy.

The Trade Union, however, has taken the gallant view. It has pronounced that to be loved wholesale is no offence, that the circulation of love declarations, even if widespread and unorthodox, does not justify dismissal and it has ordered that Giuseppe be taken back into employment.

DAWN DASH OVER LOCH LOMOND

London, July 18. Kaye Don to-day achieved his ambition of regaining the world's water speed record for Britain in Miss England III, by attaining a speed of 117.43 miles an hour, says Reuter.

The lamous motorist and motorbont expert was out on the waters of Loch Lomond at dawn, the record-breaking venture being made at 5,30 a.m.

Last week in an anofficial trial, he achieved a speed of 114 miles per hour, which itself exceeded the recognised motorboat record of 141.71 miles an hour, held by the American, Commodore Gar Wood,

The train guard and two natives were killed outright by the blasts

GONE IN A FLASH.

Thirty-four trucks in which the dynamite was being carried were blown to smithereens. One moment the train was puffing steadily along the line. The next, it had disappeared, literally in a flash.

An enormous trench, fifteen feet deep and over three hundred yards long was blown in the permanent way, which presents a remarkable spectacle.

It was fortunate that the explosion occurred in the comparatively desolate part of the railway. Had such an enormous quantity of dynamite gone up while the train was passing through the suburbs of Kimberley, the mishap would probably have assumed the proportions of a great catastrophe .-

A composite picture depicting scenes during the progress of the Bonus Army towards Washington and upon their arrival.

The "reception committee" awaiting congressmen on the Capitol step in Washington.

Washington's "Bonus Ci ty," in a comprehensive general vie w. Here, huddled among their shacks, crude mess tables and field kitchens, the thousands of war veterans "dug in," determined they said to remain until Congress pays their service compensation certificates.

A modern-day Mecca for increasing legions of destitute ex-service men, "Bonus City" is seen in this striking aerial picture to have grown to vast proportions on its site on the outskirts of Was hington. Note how a semblance of military order was achieved in setting up the shelt ers in regular rows.

$42,000 JUDGMENT CONTESTED

APPEAL OF FRENCH BANK OPENS

HOUSE MORTGAGE

Long and involved legal argument is likely in the Full Court appeal of the Banque Pranco-Chinoise pour le Commerce l'Industrie against a judgment of Mr. Justice Wood.

In the original action, the plaintiff (Mrs. Chu Shuk) claimed that her property, mortgaged to the bank, was sold without her consent, Objection was taken to such sloin contravention of an agreement and that it was sold at a price grossly under its value.

Chu Shuk $42,000 and granted her ments. application for costs of the action. The present case is the appeal of the Bank.

The main contest between the parties, continued Mr. Jenkin, would be the proper continuous of the deed of mortrage and other documents.

The plaintiff was a widow and at all material times was the owner of certain property known as No-6, Ko Shing Street

Mr. Jenkin here mentioned another person who, he said, would figure materially in the case. He was Shau Fan-tan. It would seen that the lady had a certain amount of interest in him for when he became compradore for a man named Pittendrich she whardocuments with Pittendrigh.

"It was held by the trial judge" said Mr. Jenkin "that there should have been no sale until one mont after a demand had been made upon the plaintiff. My argumen will be that the sale was in proper order because of a default in the payment of interest or under one or other of the covenants."

Under the deed, the plaintiff ha the power to appoint an agent of nominee to act for her, and on December 5th she notified the bank that she had appointed Shau to be her agent.

* Pittendrigh and Shou signed promissory note on the French Bank for $25,000, which was the amount the mortgage was limited to under the convenant. On the same day, Shan gave the bank a * specimen copy of his signature.

NEW CHINESE DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

HOLDERS DETHRONED

Shanghai, July 12. The final of the Chinese open tennis doubles championship took place yesterday afternoon at the China National Amateur Athletic Federation, C. D. Kuo and Y. Y. Kuo, winners of the 1931 title, were dethroned by two youthful college players, D. K. Yui and Guy Chen, who won in straight sets at 7-5, 6-0 and 6-3. Yui was the 1930 Shanghai junior champion and is at present a student at the University of Shanghai, while Chen reached the final of last year's hard-court tournament at the French Club and was beaten by W. A. B. Duff. He is now studying at St. John's University. Both are pupils of Gordon Lum, who officiated at yesterday's final.

EX-CHAMPIONS START WELL.

The exchampions started off in fine form and took the first two games before Yui and Chen could pot set. The latter pair won the third game, but still lagged behind until the ninth, when they repled off four games in succesgion to win the opening set at 7-5. In the second set, play was very one-sided, as Yui and Chen. ran away with without conceding a sigle game. In the third set the Josers improved, but they lacked the ability to win, giving the set to their conquerors at 6-3.

The winning couple played a sound game with strong services. and unbreakable net play. They hung to the net like leaches and broke their opponents' teamwork to pieces. The two Kuos were all pt sea, not knowing what to do. Their shots mostly went straight to the winners' rackets, and only on rare occasions could they winwith accurate passing shots.

GERMANY'S OLYMPIC STARS DEPART

Crack Performers Should Give a Good Account in America

Bremen, July 11. The German, Latvian and Czechoslovakian / Olympic teams have sailed aboard the liner "Europa" for America. The German squad is composed of 79 athletes while five others; including the German Marathon runner de Bruyn, will join the party in America. The team is headed by the famous track performers Jonath, Koerning and Dr. Peltzer, the two scullers Bulitz and Boetzelen who recently won the Dinmond Sculls in the Henley regatta, as well as by Sergeant Hirschfeld who holds the world-record in putting the weight.

TT appears that Miss Dorothy Poynton of the Los Angeles A.C., I is about to be strong armed into an Olympic diving title if this dryland practice with Marion P. Betty, former amateur weightlifting and light heavy wrestling champion, amounts to anything. Dorothy holds the national low board championship and is a leading contender for the high board and high platform titles in the Olympic events.

Before the South African campaign he was sent out to the Cape on special service and raised the Rhodesian Field Force which he commanded in early stages of the conflict. General Plumer took part in the relief of Mafeking. During the advance a shell burst close to him while he was conferring with his staff. He merely said to an aide: "Kindly tell the artillery officer to be good enough to silence that gun" and resumed his conversation. He acted as leader of various columns and at the end of the campaign was promoted majorgeneral and appointed an A. D. C. to the King. He then commanded a brigade at home and in 1903 the 4th | the Tsun Wan Road, just below the Army Corps. QUACK DENTIST MENACE

URGED

Sir,-With reference to your editorial of the 16th instant regarding the local quack "dentists," I agree with you that it is time the authorities started a campaign with a view to ridding the Colony of these quacks. They took good care to raise the dental registration fee one hundred per cent. from the 1st January, 1932,

It is a very serious matter, and it is a disgrace to allow these quacks to carry on as they are doing in a British Crown Colony. I hope at least one of the Unofficial members of the Legislative Couneil will take up this subject with the authorities.

The public should be grateful to you for taking up this matter in your paper. These quacks are using different poisons, when they know anything materia medica, let alone dental operations, etc., I hope the authorities will wake up to the fact that they have a duty to perform, and the public to protect. Yours, etc.,

As the cholera epidemic is fast abating in Canton, and the need for the full use of the Municipal Hospital I for such cases is no longer deemed necessary, the management of the hospital is applying to the authorities for the reopening of the hospital as a general hospital for all cases as at normal times.
